INTERNSHIP JOB DESCRIPTION

Wisconsin Faith Voices for Justice unites progressive people of faith toward creating a state whose people and government address the real needs and raise the dignity of the hungry and poor; care for and heal the sick; and truly listen to the voices of all citizens. Drawing from the wisdom of our faith traditions, we accomplish this through educating our members and the broader community, and advocating with our legislators to advance the common good.

Our primary areas of concern include health care reform, and repairing the social safety net, particularly concerning issues of hunger and food insecurity, housing and homelessness. One of our initiatives is the Dignity at Work Coalition, a coalition of faith groups, advocacy organizations, direct service organizations, and labor. The Dignity at Work Coalition works to build bridges and create new partnerships to advance issues related to sustainable work that sustains families. The Coalition's issues include a living wage, sustainable hours, paid sick leave, paid family leave, affordable, quality child-care, access to public transportation, an end to gender and racial discrimination in hiring and employment practices, and a voice at work.

We are seeking an intern for the fall semester of 2017, with a possibility of extending into the spring semester. We are offering an honorarium of $500 for the fall, and an additional $500 if extended. The intern is responsible for arranging for academic credit, if desired, for the internship and for satisfying all academic requirements for the internship.
